

YOUTH SPEAK 2011

Connecting Youth and Adults Together

April 13-14, 2011

Gallagher Centre Convention Centre

April 13, 2011 10:15 AM -3:00 PM Youth Summit:

- 250 youth and adults working together to discuss issues and solutions in a fun environment

April 14, 2011 9:00 AM – 12:00 PM or 1:00 PM – 4:00 PM
(choose the session that works best for you)

- Community Stakeholders (both adults and youth) develop a plan to ensure all young people thrive in Yorkton!

Keynote Speakers: Mike Bock and Cindy Carlson

Mike is originally from Vancouver, B.C. and lived overseas for several years before moving to Hampton, Virginia in 2001. Mike joined the Hampton Youth Commission in ninth grade and was hired by the Hampton Planning Department the following year. As a Youth Planner he worked on updating and implementing the Youth Component of the Hampton Community Plan, which outlined the city's efforts to shape Hampton as 'The Most Livable City in Virginia' for young people. He has been involved in planning and presenting at several regional and national conferences focused on engaging young people in the community. He is currently in his first year at the University of Virginia.

As a Principal Officer and Co-founder of Onsite Insights, www.onsiteinsights.com, Cindy works with communities, organizations and local governments to incorporate youth into decision-making roles and positive community life. She also delivers training programs for Vision Training Associates, www.search-institute.org/training/trainers.

R.S.V.P. to Andrew Sedley at 786-0581 or Andrew.sedley@shr.sk.ca by April 7, 2011

